Title: Are we them!?

What you are about to read is a series of questions. Also I have included some of my ideals and the way I see things. I know I am not the only person who sees them this way. Perhaps after reading this you will see what I mean.

You, as a citizen of Rivendell or patron of the Hungry Halfing, do not like noto pks correct? I will assume you answered yes to this. Since you do not like noto pks you would like to see them gone, correct? Once again I will assume yes. Now I would like to find out what a noto pk is. This is a player who wishes to kill other players who are criminally flagged or have a murderer status, right? Yes again. These noto pks like to fight, PvP, yes? Okay. So we know they want to fight, that's what they come to Rivendell for as a matter of fact, to fight, to kill, to make money? I think more so to fight. To have "fun" as they see it. They are probably bored. Monsters are easy to kill once you get good at it. Once you learn how the AI works they are easy.

Everyone will learn
this in time. But
fighting other people,
an intelligent person
behind the controls,
less predictable than a
monster right?
Now we have
concluded that a noto is someone who is
probably bored with regular game play. So they have decided to
fight other people.
They do so by
attacking those that they will not take a
murder count for.
Now let me ask
another question. If someone attacks you do
you feel you should
fight back? Why?
Is it shameful to not
fight someone if you
do not wish to fight
him? *Shrugs* Now
let me ask you this. If someone you wish to punish asks for something do you give
it to him? No? Hmm
well that makes
perfect sense doesn't it! If you want to punish someone then
you don't give him
what he wants! Well
We decided earlier
that we don't want noto pks in Rivendell. We also decided that noto
pks want to fight;
probably even if they
die they had "fun"
fighting. Then let me
ask you this last
question. Why would you give the noto pk
the fight that they want when you do not want them in Rivendell? Now to look at another point of view. You are someone who doesn't generally
fight these noto pks.

You enjoy coming to Rivendell. You don't like noto pks just like everyone else. But wait. Now there's a noto pks outside. Why does someone who frequents the Halfling decide they will kill the noto? Would this not be giving the noto the very fight he wants?! Now let me conclude this. The person that says they do not like noto pks is one of two things. They are either out right dumb and don't realize that the noto pk wants to fight uhh duh or they are a hypocrite, they enjoy fighting and this is the very reason the noto pks still come to Rivendell. Now I ask you to do one more thing. Take a good hard look at who you are, think about who noto pks are. Then I want you to decide what you will do next time a noto pk is at the Halfling. I also want you to look at everyone else and try to decide who they are. Just open your mind for a while and take a good hard look at what's going on around you!

Thank you for reading this I hope maybe it will open some eyes!
